To Whom it May Concern,

I am writing this letter of recommendation on behalf of Derek Fox, who worked as an extra on a short I directed recently, 'Journey'. Derek's main role as an extra was to portray an office colleague of the main character. His character is someone who plays into the daily 9-5 corporate lifestyle and struggles to escape it. The role required a dynamic approach where he reacts to the environment and controls it. Derek successfully embodied these characteristics and displayed a wide range of emotions.

During his time working for us, Derek proved himself to be an invaluable member of the team. His desire to learn showed his dedication and commitment on an off the set. Despite his already demanding responsibilities, Derek brought along a lot of energy and positivity to the shoot. His interactions with the crew and cast lifted everyone's spirits. He played an important role on the film and made himself present throughout.

Overall, I believe that Derek's enthusiasm for the filmmaking process, his eagerness to learn, and his exceptional work ethic make him an outstanding actor for any opportunities that come his way in the future.

If you have any further questions or would like additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours Sincerely,
